

Employees Data Analysis Using SQL

```
1. with a as (
select state, city, sum(profit) "total_profits" from orders group by state, city
)
```

```
b as (

```

```
select *,
dense_rank() over(partition by state order by total_profits desc)
from a)
```

```
select * from b
where dense_rank = 1
```

	state character varying (50)	city character varying (50)	total_profits numeric	dense_rank bigint
35	Oklahoma	Oklahoma City	1580.7607	1
36	Oregon	Gresham	150.8644	1
37	Pennsylvania	Chester	48.3578	1
38	Rhode Island	Providence	5505.6569	1
39	South Carolina	Columbia	1388.3777	1
40	South Dakota	Sioux Falls	343.4299	1
41	Tennessee	Lebanon	83.8057	1
42	Texas	Fort Worth	298.7327	1
43	Utah	Pleasant Grove	580.6549	1
44	Vermont	Burlington	2244.9783	1